

	Eliza Austin-Lea (acting chair of governors) is a local resident of Upton. Eliza is a solicitor working with a firm in Chester and brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in health and safety to the governing body. Eliza's children also attended Upton Heath Church of England Primary School.
	Phil Rowlands (parent governor). Phil is a local resident of Upton with two children at Upton Heath. Phil is an IT Manager with many years' experience in school ICT, currently working at a local independent college.
	Barbara Capstick (diocesan governor) is part of the team at our local church, Holy Ascension in Upton.
	Rev. Paul Newman (diocesan governor) is the Reverend at our local church, Holy Ascension in Upton.
	Hilarie McNae (co-opted governor) is a local borough councillor for Upton, where she has lived for over 30 years.
	Hayley Wiper (co-opted governor) is currently working as a self-employed child minder. Previously Hayley held the post of teaching assistant at Upton Heath Church of England Primary School

	Jude Lewis (elected staff governor) has been a member of staff at Upton Heath for 8 years. An experienced teacher, she has held numerous teaching roles at Upton Heath including class teacher and PPA cover.
	Sarah Pearson (diocesan governor) is the lead of Branching Out forest school and an experienced teacher at Upton Heath Church of England Primary School.
	Wendy O'Leary-Davies (interim principal governor) is the interim principal at Upton Heath. Wendy has over 30 years' experience in education, with 26 of those at senior leadership level. Possessing NPQH and currently studying for a masters in education, Wendy's specialisms span KS1 and KS2 and include art and design and mathematics with experience as mathematics lead. Wendy has primary school and aspect leadership experience in maths, art and design, PE, assessment and curriculum design and SIAMS.